EXPLORE ART ON THE FARM BEFORE OR AFTER YOUR PIZZA!

Make the most of your visit by experiencing two unique art exhibits this evening. Both exhibits are open from dawn to dusk through September.

Prairie Art Exhibit: "Sounds on the Prairie"

Stroll through the Prairie Art Exhibit, featuring more than 80 works created by local artists of all ages and skill levels, displayed throughout our nine-acre restored prairie. Start near the swing to walk the one-mile path.

Sponsored by John & Christine Augustine

Seeds of Memory Sound Walk

Created in honor of the 100-year anniversary of Henry A. Wallace founding Pioneer, this self-guided sound walk invites you to walk the historic farm and prairie using your smartphone and headphones. Discover site-responsive sounds using the QR codes on signs near the farmhouse, along the prairie path and near the historic corn plot.

Don't have headphones? A limited number are available to borrow in the Gathering Barn.

Sound installation by Iowa artists:

Anna Gebhardt and Philip Rabalais

Support provided by the Iowa Tourism Office and Iowa Arts Council, which exist within the Iowa Economic Development Authority.
